Reviews

An extremely awesome publication with lucid and perfect explanations. It is actually written in basic phrases rather than confusing. You will like how the writer publishes this book.

Hardback. Book Condition: New. Not Signed; After her Aunt's suicide fall off Westminster Bridge, Gina's cousin Lindsie comes to take charge of her. Gina finds herself locked in the attic of a big house in Cranbourne Square; she starts sleepwalking and has odd lapses of memory. Gina inherits her Grandfather's shipping line when she turns eighteen and throws herself into work to banish her emotional pain. Until, she meets handsome Dr Timothy Trenchard and finds true happiness at last. But on their wedding day she is abandoned at the church. A spiteful letter, laced with malice, accuses her of two-timing him. As the mystery deepens there is another presence to complicate things: a pair of intense green eyes that stare back at Gina from the mirror. book.
