Excerpt: .only one who kept His pristine shape, of all the former three. iso The fourth by thee, Gaville, still is wept. CANTO XXVI. Rejoice, O Florence, now thou art so great, That over land and sea thou beat st thy wing, And all through hell thy name dost promulgate! I found among the villains such a ring Of five thy citizens, as works me shame, 5 Nor does thence unto thee great glory spring. But if from morning dreams truth ever came, Thou shalt, or ever it be long, have tasted What Prato craves for thee, none else to name; And had it come, it had not too much hasted; 10 I would it were, as it shall surely be, And carks me more, the more my life is wasted. We parted hence, and by such stairs as we Were furnished in the bournes for our descent, My guide remounted, and supported me. 15 And pushing our untraded path we went Through crags and splinters of the rocky hill, Where foot without hand failed of its intent. O then I grieved, and I regrieve it still, When I retrace the memory of that sight; 20 And lay a double curb upon my skill, Lest it, where virtue guides not, should take flight, And make me grudge the grace to my own soul That stars afford me, or some better might. As peasant, resting on the grassy knoll, is What season he, that all the...
