Not illustrated. 1911 Excerpt: .men, from love or respect, follow the women, like sheep, to church. But when these men meet their fellows in business or social circles they carefully refrain from mentioning religion in the course of conversation. Why so, if it be not to keep their women-folk ignorant while they remain wise? So you see that it is not really our women, but our old women of the stronger sex, who are the chief culprits in keeping our good women in a state of bondage to the church or chapel. Is it any wonder also that they run to the church when so often they can t find true men folk at home, and thus are swayed by the oily tongues of the old women in the pulpit, who yet do not know the what, and the where of truth. When our reason (the brain) sees clearly and knows well what to do, it, through faith, its armorbearer, can and will plough through oceans of apparent trouble. For wisdom, the product of reason, can breast the surging waves and safely reach the harbor of refuge. Reason requires not subjection, but leads rather to independence and self-reliance. If so, why should you desire me to pose as King, with you as the slaves, trafficking upon your ignorance? Would you then call me just? Or would you not think me more noble when I show you the way to your own crowns, which is to be kings yourselves? For through...
