A Saturday Child (Paperback)

By Titing Sudjana Titing Binti Omon

Xulon Press, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .A simple yet profound story of our Mighty God reaching into the life of an Indonesian village girl who chose to follow His paths of righteousness. With God's gifting, she has lived through much hardship with thanksgiving. - Ron and Ellen Ritchey Titing's faith continues to impact others as she partners with International Disaster Emergency Service, offering help and hope to earthquake victims in Indonesia. Demonstrating God's love in practical ways often softens hearts for responding to the gospel, as expressed by the messages of thanks shared in Titing's story. - Nancy Jett, IDES Vina escaped from a family scheme to marry her to a grandfather when she was 11. Through a series of God events she came to live with our daughter and her family. They helped her learn to read and she is now in Jr. High School. While she was preparing for her elementary school equivalency test, we tried to encourage Vina with a promise to take her to Java to meet Titing when she passed. We knew Titing's life story would encourage and challenge her....
