Dancing Through the Fire (Hardback)

By Tanith Lee

Fantastic Books, 2015. Hardback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Cover copy: Life, death, love, and truth: major themes that frequently appear in Grandmaster Tanith Lee's fiction, are all represented in Dancing Through the Fire, one of the last collections she put together before her untimely death. The stories in this book have never before been collected, and four of them have never before been published. These tales will transport you from mystical lands to mystical worlds, corporeal manifestations of myth, and mythical interpretations of life, into realms you've never visited (and in some cases, could never have imagined visiting). Among the reprinted stories are: * Comfort and Despair, which Publishers Weekly called eloquent. * Fold, which editor Mike Allen called surreal and haunting. * That Glisters Is, which, according to Vova, leaves a disturbing aftertaste. * The Death of Death, which Colleen Anderson said is rich with personality and style. The four new stories include: * My Lovely, a chilling little tale of a house where people drop in. [short story] * Last Dancer, which tells of an annual commemoration that just may be the social ticket of the year. [short...
