

Assault from the Sky U.S Marine Corps Helicopter Operations in Vietnam

By Dick Camp

Casemate. Hardcover. Condition: New. 264 pages. Dimensions: 9.1in. x 6.0in. x 1.0in. This work describes U. S. Marine Corps helicopter operations, including their actions and evolution, throughout the Vietnam War. The book is divided into parts spanning the three stages of the Corps combat deployment: Buildup (1962-1966), Heavy Combat (1967-1969), and The Bitter End (1975). Each part includes chapters devoted to telling the story of Marine helicopters from the individual to the strategic level. Vietnam has often been called our first helicopter war, and indeed the U. S. Marine Corps, as well as Army, had to feel its way forward during the initial combats. But by 1967 the combat was raging across South Vietnam, with confrontational battles against the NVA, on a scale comparable to the great campaigns of WWII. In 1968, when the Communists launched their mammoth counteroffensive, the Marines were forced to fight on all sides, with the helicopter giving them the additional dimension that proved decisive in repelling the enemy. The author, a Vietnam veteran, uses his experiences as a company commander to bring the story to life by weaving personal accounts, after-action reports and official documents into a remarkably readable narrative of service and sacrifice by Marine...

READ ONLINE
[7.39 MB]

Reviews

Extremely helpful for all class of folks. It is really simplified but excitement from the 50 percent of your ebook. You wont sense monotony at at any moment of your time (that's what catalogs are for about if you check with me).

-- Prof. Zachary Pollich V

This composed pdf is great. It usually will not cost too much. I am very easily can get a pleasure of reading a composed book.

-- Luis Klein