Excerpt from The Soldiers Monument in Cambridge: Proceedings in Relation to the Building and Dedication of the Monument Erected in the Years 1869-70, by the City Government of Cambridge, Mass., In Honor of Those of Her Soldiers and Sailors Who Died in Defence of the Union of the States In selecting a site for the Monument, the Committee endeavored to fix upon a position the most conspicuous that the Common could furnish. It was accordingly placed in the direct line of vision, as approached from North Avenue, Cambridge Street, Harvard Square, and the Appian Way, on the south-east section of the enclosure. The Committee believe that this selection meets the public approval. The corner-stone was laid on Thursday, June 17, 1869, and the Monument dedicated on Wednesday, July 13, 187 O. Impressive and interesting services were held on both occasions, which are given in full detail in the following pages. At the close of the ceremonies on the day of dedication, the Governor and staff, with many military and naval officers. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare...
