

Like Loving Backward: Stories (Paperback)

By Cheo Tyehimba

iUniverse, United States, 2008. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Cheo Tyehimba is a gifted storyteller, in the tradition of Henry Dumas, Gloria Naylor, and Zora Neale Hurston. Like Loving Backward speaks to the Black male yearnings for love, and acceptance. But there are also universal truths to these multilayered tales. Take a mystical ride with Taylor, and find yourself yearning and learning, too. KEVIN POWELL, Author of Someday We'll All Be Free Like Loving Backward is a book of beautiful surprises. Cheo Tyehimba makes the supernatural seem natural while the real becomes nearly fantastic. The best surprise this collection offers is that it assumes the black male experience is complex. Whether fearful or fearsome, loved or loathed, the men in these stories are never simple and that's a true magic feat. VICTOR LAVALLE, author of Slapboxing with Jesus and The Ecstatic Cheo Tyehimba, an award-winning journalist and author, offers seven emotionally resonant and slightly supernatural stories about how black men learn to love. Universal in their scope and inspired by the work of Black Arts Movement-era novelist and poet Henry Dumas, the tales are somewhat inner-city fabulist and out-of-bounds....
